

PAF plane crashes near Bhakkar

BHAKKAR: A plane of Pakistan Air Force (PAF) crashed in the suburb of the city; however, the pilot escaped the loss of life in the mishap, IPP reports Wednesday.

According to the PAF spokesman, the Mirage plane was in the air on a training flight when it met an accident this morning in an area of Thal near Bhakkar.

The PAF mouthpiece told media that pilot escaped unhurt in the crash; meanwhile, also no fatality occurred on the ground as a result of plane crash.

The investigation into the accident has been started.