

Mohammad Hafeez parts ways with Peshawar Zalmi

Veteran all-rounder Mohammad Hafeez has been released from Peshawar Zalmi – the Pakistan Super League franchise he represented for all three editions of the T20 league to date.

The 38-year old announced the news on Twitter, thanking the franchise and its owner, Javed Afridi, for the three-year journey and the memories.

Hafeez has put his name down for the draft, which will determine what team he will be in action for during the 2019 edition.

“Thanks @PeshawarZalmi & @JAfridi10 for such a great journey of 3yrs full of fond memories. Had fabulous time with U all. Now I decided to go to Draft of @thePSLt20 , Thanks to all fans of @PeshawarZalmi for their unconditional love & support. wishing u all the best for future,” the all-rounder tweeted.
